Description

This well-located 70s rambler had a huge stone fireplace that dominated the space, dividing the kitchen, living and family rooms. By removing the fireplace and vaulting the ceiling, an open, inviting and spacious great room was born. The enlarged kitchen features new skylights, beautiful granite countertops and cherry cabinets along with a raised eating bar. A relocated gas fireplace and entertainment center now compliments the main seating area. Swedish finished hardwood floors throughout complete the transformation.
