To protect the property of the owners who have graciously opened their homes to the public, please observe the following rules:]

- No strollers. Children must be carried or be able to walk.
- Booties will be provided at each home, and they must be worn in all homes. This means shoes off and booties on (booties over shoes will not be permitted).
- Carpool if possible; Parking may be limited.
- Children must be supervised at all times, and if they need to be carried, no hard backpack carriers are allowed.
- No food or drink in the homes.
- No photography of any kind (still or video) allowed.
- No pets.
