Description

A mid-century split-level home is often viewed as a building lot. In this case, it was seen as a framework and as potential. A largely cosmetic renovation gave this Mercer Island home a new identity, greater functionality and a bit of wow factor! The home is contemporary and chic, with clean lines and bold graphics to keep things interesting. The latest in technology is part of the equation in the form of appliances, specialty lighting and even plumbing fixtures.

Directions

From 1-90:

- Exit the Island Crest Way Exit
- Take a slight right on to 82nd Ave. SE (<1 mile from I-90)
- Turn right at 37th Street
- House is the first one on the right (8140 SE 37th St)
